Phil read minutes from last meeting. Debra moved to accept and Erik 2nd it. All approved.

Erik read treasurers report. Balance is close to 3,000 Report will be at end of this report. Deborah moved to accept report and Janet seconded. All approved.

Deb spoke about Fall Foliage Day. Phil suggested making kettle corn. Phil will bring in supplies for that. Deb is bringing in pie and Phyllis is bringing one in too. Erik will bring cider. Deb will bring in pot for cider and pot for kettle corn.

Phil was asked to send thank you note to woman who donated photo of wedding at Clark House . circa 1920 and request for names.

We received a donation of Orville's Revenge books from Steve Martin (24 copies). Phil will send him a thank you note. It's a story of an unsolved murder in Newbury, VT.

Phyllis brought up some ideas for event for Dec/Holiday time. Perhaps a Childrens theme. Clothing, toys, Dick can bring in wooden toys? In early Dec. Sat Dec 1st? We can sell books etc.

Deb/Brent ? to talk to Dick M. about doing steps or ramp at the entrance.

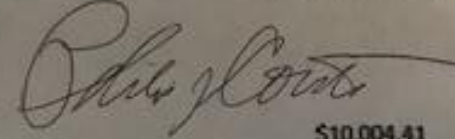

Phyllis brought up possibly of having more times for house to be opened for educational purposes. Maybe find another source of income? More programs on Genealogy, more Open Houses. Next formal meeting will be Tuesday, May 7th at 6pm.
